He's Herod!

Herod, the King of Judea.

The king who rules with the power of fear.

In his great white palace in Jerusalem,

His servants try to please him

but they're nervous men!

Now Herod has wives,
Some dark and some fair.
He's commanded them to give him
The perfect heir.
But if a baby doesn't suit him,
then in one breath, he'll snarl
Herod spoken –
It's a reject, put the child to death!

The people in the city simply hate this man,
They're waiting for God to come up with a plan.
They need a Messiah to save the day,
And bring a little peace with him along the way.

So, imagine the scene: there's a star in the sky,

And three wise men come strolling by.

They stop at Herod's palace,

A natural thing, if you want to find a baby
who's a brand-new King.

(Year 5 and 6 girls sing)

People gather round with a glint in their eye,

For the palace is the web and these men are the fly.

(Everyone sing)

King Herod is the spider, waiting for his prey,

The wise men will be dead meat today!
